RIVCO JOB BOARD

With a tight labor market all across the United States, getting your job opportunity in front of the right job seeker is more important than ever.

Recent data shows that for every one person looking for work, there are two job openings available to choose from.

Let us help you stand out! Our team is ready to review your job advertisement, ensure you have a good job description including the benefits of working for your company, and how you can stand out from the others in the crowd.

Once your job post is ready, you can post it on our FREE job board located at www.rivcojobs.org.

When on the site simply click on the "Employer" tab and select register. You will then be guided through the rest of the set up process in creating your account, and then posting your jobs!

This is another free service the County offers to employers to help attract and recruit your next star employee! Contact us today for more information on all our Workforce Services!
