

Caleb Ragan

Policy Director,
Inland Empire Labor Council

Caleb Ragan is an experienced political professional with a proven track record of building grassroots electoral movements and navigating the policy-making process to deliver legislative successes impactful for working families in the Inland Empire.

Caleb currently serves as the Policy Director for the Inland Empire Labor Council, AFL-CIO, a federation representing 90 unions and over 400,000 working families across Riverside and San Bernardino Counties. Among other roles, he has previously served with former California State Senator Richard Roth and former Riverside City Councilmember Ronaldo Fierro, where he focused on delivering tangible results for working-class communities at the local and state levels.