

Inland Empire Designing Equitable Apprenticeships

Growing Nontraditional Apprenticeships in the Inland Empire

Division of Apprenticeship Standards awarded the Riverside County Workforce Development Division $1,824,000 to expand existing, create new apprenticeship opportunities, and enroll 380 new registered apprentices in the Inland Empire

Targeted Industries include:

- IT/Cybersecurity
- Healthcare
- Manufacturing
- Transportation/Logistics
- Public Sector

Target Populations include:

- Dislocated Workers
- Women
- Veterans
- Black, Indigenous, and People or Color (BIPOC)
- People with Disabilities
- Disconnected Youth
- Justice-involved individuals

In partnership with our apprenticeship intermediary: