

PRISON to EMPLOYMENT

The Inland Empire Regional Planning Unit, made up of Riverside and San Bernardino counties' Workforce Development Departments, was awarded $2,875,495.91 to assist justice-involved individuals in obtaining training and/or employment

A Request for Proposal recently closed and an evaluation will be conducted to select service providers to partner with.

Job seekers who have been formerly incarcerated or justice involved may go into a local Riverside County or San Bernardino County America's Job Center of California (AJCC) to receive help finding a job, enrolling into training, or supportive services to aid in any barriers to employment.
